

① Overall, this class is beneficial to people's understanding of Islam. This ~~program~~ program sets a solid basis for all young Muslims to start at and develop a ~~clear~~ ^{clear} understanding about Islam. And from our understanding, we utilize our knowledge to convey Islam in the real light that it is; a good light. This class teaches us the responsibility to portray Islam positively to non-Muslims and clear up misconceptions about this religion. This includes building bridges with other faiths and draw comparisons so the differences would be less acknowledged; ultimately clearing away hatred.

② This class has some bad things that need to be changed. This includes the duration of the class. The class is ^{is} nearly the same amount of hours of a school day. Thus, making me have school six times a week. This cuts out a lot of homework and study time for me. This also includes my relax time since I'll have to finish up all my homework after class. Therefore, I think it will be in everybody's best interest to shorten the duration of the class to a solid two hours.

How's 2000?

(1) - Overall, this class is critical to the success of the program. It is a solid base for all young leaders to start on and a place where they can learn about leadership and teamwork. We have our own curriculum and we use it to teach the rest of the class. It is a great first step in the leadership process. The class teaches us the responsibility of being a leader and how to be a good role model. We also learn about the importance of being a good listener and how to work with others. This includes building bridges with other teams and being a good team player. We also learn about the importance of being a good listener and how to work with others.
