Dear Dad,

First off, thank you for everything you've done for me. I might not look like you, but I want to act like you. You have an amazing sense of humor that I have inherited. You also never get angry, which is something I want to emulate. You wanted your butt for me to have a good future. I know we disagree on many things, but I still love you.

Love (Mama)

Dear Abel,

You should join the academy because you will learn a lot and have lots of fun. Laherji is insane but there is a method to his madness. Not only does he make you a smarter muslim but a better person. I have seen people become smarter and better people. I myself feel like this is one of the most beneficial things ~~that I have~~ for me. I know that I am a better person coming out of this class as compared to when I entered it.
