

Yasin Hassan

The Qur'an is a great book of guidance. However, it is very hard to understand. There are many groups to categorize each surah. The four that will be discussed are reflection, historical, admonish and instruct. Hopefully, you will get a better view of The Holy Qur'an.

The first category is reflection. An example of this would be water. When you are thirsty, you crave for it. Then you reflect upon that moment and learn from it. This will be something you remember for the rest of your life.

Another category is historical. An example would be about Noah's ark. There was a flood and Noah tried to warn the people. He built an ark and the people that got on it survived. This is Now we will learn about the category admonish. This is about hell. All muslims will end up in heaven.

However, the more bad things you do, the longer you will stay in hell. You should now consider to do good things.

The final category is instruct. The Quran tells you that there is only one god. It also tells you that there is heaven & hell. The Quran makes you believe in the Day of Judgement. Finally, it makes you believe in the ultimate enemy, Shaytan.
