

Dear Anisa

You should join this program, because it is a wonderful way to learn new things. This class is very different from other Islamic programs. Our teacher Lanerji is crazy and his craziness might drive you out of the class. However it is up to you to stay. Every week we learn something different and expand your knowledge. I'd hope that you would stay because it is very interactive class and you get other peoples perspective on a certain topic. As well as making you think outside of the box. With worldly issues. I hope you consider to remain in this class. It will be a struggle, however its worth it in the end. We hope to see you seeing you so you could share your knowledge.

Bye
